Crazy Woman Creek Bancorp Announces Stock Repurchase Program

BUFFALO, WY., July 27, 2026 -- Crazy Woman Creek Bancorp (OTCPK: CRZY) ("Bancorp"), the parent company of Buffalo Federal Bank, today announced its Board of Directors recently approved a new share repurchase program. Under the share repurchase program, Bancorp is authorized to repurchase up to 15,000 shares of its common stock in the open market or through privately negotiated transactions, as market conditions warrant, but does not obligate Bancorp to repurchase any specified number of shares.

“We view our stock to be a compelling investment opportunity, and this repurchase program reflects our confidence in Bancorp’s long-term value. It provides shareholder liquidity, returns equity to our investors, and thanks the loyal shareholders who have been with us since 1996,” said Paul Brunkhorst, Chief Executive Officer.

The timing and price of repurchases as well as the actual number of shares repurchased under the program will be at the discretion of Bancorp and will depend on a variety of factors, including general market conditions, the stock price, regulatory requirements and limitations, corporate liquidity requirements and priorities and other factors. The share repurchase program expires December 31, 2026.

Bancorp intends to fund repurchases from its presently held internal funds, supplemented as needed by a dividend from Buffalo Federal Bank, and to execute repurchases in compliance with applicable federal and state securities laws and bank regulations, including without limitation and to the extent applicable, Rules 10b-18 and 10b5-1 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The stock repurchase program may be suspended, terminated or modified at any time without notice.
